Please be aware that these are simply broad guidelines for each jet category and price. Availability will depend on locale, operator, and model/aircraft availability at time of travel, and time of year (high/low season). No specific guarantees for exact aircraft match can be made. This decision is always determined by aircraft operator/ aircraft owner at the time of actual start of itinerary. However, we always make best efforts to obtain the "closest-to -exact- match" as requested by client.
